SUMMARY

Frontend-focused Computer Science undergraduate with strong fundamentals in JavaScript, DOM manipulation, and API integration. Focused on building interactive, responsive web applications with clean UI to improve scalability. Currently seeking a frontend developer intern or full-stack internship role to apply problem-solving skills and real-world project experience in a production environment.

PROJECT EXPERIENCE

Pokémon Battle Simulator

- Tech Stack: HTML5, CSS3, JavaScript (ES6), PokéAPI
- Built a turn-based Pokémon battle simulator with dynamic HP tracking and attack logic.
- Integrated PokéAPI to fetch real-time Pokémon data and sprite assets using Fetch API.
- Implemented asynchronous data handling with proper error management and edge-case handling.
- Designed responsive UI with custom animations and structured component-based layout.
- Optimized DOM updates for real-time battle state transitions.
